Exploring BioSciences Opportunities (EBO) is a partnership program for high school girls and young women in the DC Metro area.

Program Goal: Spark interest in biosciences in DC metro area and learn how to pursue a career on this expanding area of science.
Exploring Biosciences

3-Part Program

- Program limited to 30-50 total students
- Transportation assistance available for in-person events
- Cash Awards totaling $3,000
- Understand potential college programs that support BioPharma
- Network with professional women in BioPharma careers

- Career Opportunities: in-person
  - Kickoff event at STEM for Her Day on December 12, 2022
  - Day in the Life panel discussion with women biopharma professionals

- Career Exploration: Virtual
  - Smaller group activities
  - 3 interactive sessions with leading biopharma professionals

- Careers Launch & Awards: In-person
  - Celebratory program conclusion
  - Announcement of cash awards

Program Partners

Bristol Myers Squibb
MERZ AESTHETICS

More info
703-794-2125
info@stemforher.org